

Who should use this form?

This form can only be used by:

- a registered migration agent;
- a non-registered migration agent outside Australia; or
- an exempt person.

This form should be used to notify the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) that:

- you have been appointed by a client (eg. a visa applicant) to provide immigration assistance with matters under the Migration Act 1958 and, if applicable, to also act as the that person's authorised recipient; or
- your appointment has ended. (You may notify the department of this in writing if you prefer.)

A separate form 956 Advice by a migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance must be completed for each matter.

Do not use this form if:

- you have only been appointed as an authorised recipient (ie. you are not providing any immigration assistance); or
- your appointment as an authorised recipient has ended.

In these cases, the person for whom you are the authorised recipient should complete form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

What is immigration assistance?

A person gives immigration assistance if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist a person with matters related under the Migration Act 1958.

The most common times assistance is provided is during visa application processes, visa cancellation processes, sponsorship processes (including monitoring or sanctions) or ministerial intervention requests.

Note: Immigration assistance does not include simply filling in an application form, translating or interpreting or passing on information about an application without comment or explanation.

Registered migration agents

A registered migration agent is a person who is registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) to provide immigration assistance.

If operating in Australia, migration agents must be registered with the Office of the MARA.

Information on migration agents is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

Immigration Advice and Assistance Scheme (IAAS)

If you are a registered migration agent who is assisting a client under this scheme, please indicate this on the form at Question 8.

Non-registered migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents operating outside Australia do not have to be registered with the Office of the MARA. The department may issue offshore agents with an identification number for administrative purposes only. This number does not mean that the agent is registered and it does not represent endorsement of the agent by the Australian Government.

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be registered as migration agents in order to provide immigration assistance:

- a close family member (spouse, child, adopted child, parent, brother or sister of a visa applicant);
- a sponsor or nominator for a visa applicant;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance;
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

As an exempt person you must not charge a fee for your service. In Australia, if you do charge a fee you are committing an offence and penalties of up to 10 years jail can apply.

Authorised recipient

An authorised recipient is a person appointed to receive all written communications from the department on behalf of another person.

If you are not appointed as the authorised recipient, all written communication will be sent to the client or their appointed authorised recipient.

Roles and responsibilities

The department

The department will:

- discuss the client's case with you;
- send written communications to you (if you are also appointed as the authorised recipient);
- seek information from you.

Registered migration agents

If you are giving immigration assistance to a visa applicant in relation to a visa application and give that assistance after having agreed to represent the applicant, section 312A of the Migration Act 1958 and regulation 7G of the Migration Agents Regulations 1998 require you to inform the department. One way you can do this is by sending a completed form 956 to the department.

Under the migration agents Code of Conduct you must:

- provide your client with an estimate of fees and a statement of services;
- act with honesty, integrity and in a timely manner when dealing with clients or the department;
- maintain a sound and up to date knowledge of migration law and procedure;
- act lawfully in the best interests of your clients;
- provide relevant information with applications;
- notify clients and the department promptly of any changes to contact details;
- avoid or manage conflicts of interest.

You must not:

- intimidate or coerce any person for your benefit;
- encourage vexatious or grossly unfounded applications;
- represent that you can obtain a particular decision under the Migration Act or the Migration Regulations; or
- engage in misleading advertising.

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

About the information you give

The department is authorised under the Migration Act 1958 to collect information provided on this form. The information provided will be used by the department to communicate with you, and to monitor agents for integrity purposes.

It may also be disclosed to agencies authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, review of decisions and regulation of migration agents and other professionals.

The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any office of the department or Australian mission overseas, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed.
